The text:

My name is Jack. I am from England. I am a pupil in a primary school. My daily meals are very important for me to keep fit. I have breakfast at 7 a.m. I ride my bike to school and begin my classes. At midday, I have lunch. My mother prepares a healthy lunch box for me, every day. It consists of vegetables, fruits and proteins. At 5 p.m., I go home. I have dinner: a salad and some soup. My sister, however, likes more junk food like pizza and fries. She, usually, has a stomachache. The doctor always advises her to change this bad eating habit but in vain. In my free time, I usually practise sports with my peers. But Sandra's favourite activity is playing video games.
