Dear Susie ,

Yesterday was a special day because it was Teacher's Day! We celebrated it with our amazing teacher, Mrs. Simpson . We wanted to make her feel super happy, so we did lots of fun things. First, we decorated our classroom with colorful balloons. We made the room look so superb ! We bought special foods, like yummy cake, to share with everyone.

We danced to our favorite songs and laughed a lot. It was like a big party! We also wrote special cards for Mrs. Simpson. In the cards, we told her how much we love her teaching and how thankful we are for everything she does.

The best part was giving her the cards and seeing her smile. She was so happy! Mrs. Simpson loved the decorations, balloons, dancing, and especially the heartfelt cards. It was a fantastic day that we'll always remember.

Yours ,
Serena
