THE TEXT

Dear Pamela,

① I'm pleased to let you know we are in a beautiful city. It's Paris. Last Thursday, our class went to France for a day. I got up early. Mum made some sandwiches. I left home at eight o'clock. Dad took me to the airport by car. When we arrived at there, the teacher said: "Have you all got your passports?" I looked in my bag, but my passport wasn't there. Dad took me home again but I didn't find my passport in my room. Then, I found it. It was in my pocket!

② We drove back to the station very fast. A policeman stopped us. He gave Dad a ticket for driving fast. Dad was late for work. He was really mad at me. But I was on time to go with my friends.

③ We had a great time in France. We did lots of interesting things and we saw many beautiful places in Paris. I took pictures of the Eiffel Tower. It was very tall. We also visited the Bastille Castle. It was very old. Besides, we walked on the Seignes Bridge. Under it, runs the Seignes River.

④ I bought dad a big present from the souvenirs market. I bought him a small miniature of the Eiffel Tower. I enjoyed my time so much. What about you?

Love,

Angela
