

End of term test N°2 (March 2016)Name: Class: 8th form ...1.....I. Reading comprehension:THE TEXT

Amy Smith, 24, studied English and Media Studies at Nottingham University and then worked for a year as an English teacher in Poland. She joined Network Television as a researcher. Now she works as a presenter on Here and Now, a children's programme. She lives with her parents and brother, Joe, who is a student aged 17, in West London. She talks about her free time.

"I work as a television presenter. My work is interesting. I enjoy it very much, but when I go home, I prefer listening to the radio. But I enjoy watching late-night TV- especially celebrity interviews. As for music, well, I'm a bit old-fashioned about it. I like ballads and slow romantic songs. My brother is in a band called Noise. They are very noisy, but Joe is a very good drummer. But he doesn't mind working so hard because he loves what he is doing. I enjoy watching him. He's got a really nice voice but he isn't the singer. What a pity! My favourite sort of dancing is ballet dancing. And it isn't easy to become a ballet dancer. You have to be very fit, and work very hard. And that isn't the only problem.

I love going to the cinema. I like European films. Joe is never interested in going with me. He watches lots of videos- action films usually. He likes old Schwarzenegger films and he's a big fan of Jean-Claude Van Damme. I don't like such action films very much. In fact, I hate watching most of them. Finally, I don't have time for reading newspapers. I read a lot of magazines, especially about films. Empire is my favourite. I read it every month."
