Lesson 2: Sharing family responsibilities.

Responsibility (singular) → responsibilities
The responsibilities of the house = housechores
Housework = household duties.

cooking / cleaning / tidying up the rooms /
Setting = laying the table + clearing the table /
washing the dishes / doing the laundry / hanging it / folding it / ironing it / dusting / taking the garbage out / gardening / sweeping the floor /
vacuuming / driving children to school /
feeding the babies /

Who is responsible for the housechores?

Who is in charge of the housechores?

The mother is usually in charge of the housechores.

But is it fair to lay it all at the feet of the man?

No! It's unfair because the housework is:

tiring / time-consuming / stressful / boring / repetitive /
exhausting / monotonous / dull / The house work
is a heavy burden. ↓

The housechores make the mother:

tired / exhausted / stressed / nervous / bored /
ill at ease / overburdened by the housechores.

Should we let it all at her feet?

- It's our duty to lend her a hand and share the housechores.

... to ... tidying up ... rooms
