Dear Paul,

I hope that you are fine. I am sending you this e-mail to tell you about my house. It is big and comfortable. There are three bedrooms: mine in the corner, next to my sister's bedroom, and my parents' room in the middle. On the right, there is the living room with sofas and armchairs. There is also a TV set on the left. Opposite the living room is the dining room with a big square table and eight chairs. The kitchen is just next to it. There, we have a fridge and a cooker. The bathroom is between my parents' room and the toilet. Outside, there is a green garden where I usually relax and swim in its swimming pool during summer. Next to the garden, there is a large garage where we park our cars. That's all about my house and I hope you like it. Please write back to tell me about yours.

Your friend,
